one of the best in the county. The new owners, Alice and Andy, have done a fantastic renovation and have sourced lots of fresh, local goodies. They are a great asset to our village.

"We are really enjoying this next chapter of our lives," concludes Robert. "Having now completed our main house here, I am now fully involved in my building and interior design services, and working on some very exciting projects here along the coast.

"We both feel very privileged to have the opportunity to live here, and this move to Norfolk has certainly transformed our lives, much for the better." ●
